

Washington “ Congressman John W. Olver (D-MA) took a unique stand today by proposing a

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, the state of Massachusetts is among the top exporters of

Olver was joined by bi-partisan cosponsors including Mark Foley of Florida, Nancy Pelosi of California,

“This amendment makes the Africa trade bill a better piece of legislation by giving Congress the Olver continued, “This epidemic is too powerful to ignore if we are serious about expanding economic

As a result of this viral epidemic in sub-Saharan Africa, ten million people have already died, fifteen million

The HIV/AIDS crisis is destructive to families, societies, and economies in more than a few nations.

The bipartisan “Sense of Congress” amendment says the following

ˆ Addressing the HIV/AIDS crisis should be central to U.S. foreign policy in Sub-Saharan Africa

ˆ Progress must be made to prevent and treat AIDS before there can be hope for sustainable

ˆ HIV/AIDS is a global threat which merits greatly expanded government policy, private

July 16, 1999

---

###